

Private Facts for Vila Vodka

Vila is very upset about being displayed throughout the media with vomit all over her Versace dress. Her reputation is everything. Not to mention, the ruined dress was on loan from Donna Versace herself, and she'll now have to pay the fashion house $40,000 to replace it.

The ruined dress was only the tip of the iceberg. That night was supposed to be her "coming out" as the new face of Versace. After the pictures hit the tabloids, Versace cancelled their spokes model contract. The contract was worth $100,000. The contract with Versace had a provision that made the entire contract contingent upon positive media coverage, and she was already pushing her luck because she had been on TMZ.com twice in the past month for partying too hard.

Season Two of Love Shot was "in talks," and now with the bad publicity, she's losing her second chance for a shot at love, worth around $100,000 (though nothing was final). Vila was relying on Love Shot and the Versace contract to be her income. Without them, she has found herself in dire need of money and needs to recover at least $260,000 to cover the lost contracts, the dress and her medical stay. However, Vila would consider reducing her demand if she could be a spokesmodel for D. Piddy's women's line.

Vila felt overwhelmed after all of the chaos from D. Piddy's Oscar party. She checked herself into the hospital for "exhaustion." In the hospital, Vila demanded that she get her own private luxury suite, along with a personal nurse. The "exhaustion" was caused by stomach pains, nausea, insomnia, and general stress from not being able to function to the best of her ability. These symptoms are common side affects from the diet pills she had been taking to keep her slim frame. Vila was aware of these possible side affects prior to taking the pills but took them anyway. When her doctor advised her to discontinue use of the diet pills, she took his advice and immediately felt 100% better after ceasing consumption.

Taking diet pills is not uncommon in Hollywood, but it is usually kept very private to give the illusion that the stars are naturally lean. To look fabulous in the dress, Vila was also on the latest Hollywood "5-A-Day" diet where she ate only 5 almonds the entire day for 5 days before the Oscars. She'd rather have the fact she was taking diet pills, along with the popular yet controversial 5 almonds for 5 days diet, kept confidential. Vila wants to clean up her reputation, and the kinds of things that could come out through trial would not achieve those ends.
